

1. Here's what we know:

All the dogs have long ears and a short tail.

Which statement is true?

- A. All the dogs have short ears and tails.
- B. All the dogs have a short tail and long ears.
- C. All the dogs have long tails and ears.
- D. All the dogs have short ears and a long tail.

2. Here's what we know:

Sally has three cats. One is white, one is black and one is brown.

Which statement is false?

- A. One of Sally's cats is brown.
- B. Sally has more than one cat.
- C. Sally has more than three cats.
- D. Sally has a cat that is white.

3. Which item is the most specific?

- A. two-wheeled vehicle
- B. bicycle
- C. vehicle
- D. mountain bike

4. What is the correct way to write this sentence?

do you want to play outside my brother asked

- A. Do you want to play outside? my brother asked.
- B. "Do you want to play outside?" my brother asked.
- C. Do you want to play outside? "my brother asked."
- D. "Do you want to play outside," my brother asked.

⇒

