

- D. The pig rowed quick swam.
- C. The pig rowed ducking quick swam.
- B. The quick swam across the lake.
- A. The pig quick swam.

4. Which sentence has a predicate that tells more?

- D. On Friday, we go out for dinner.
- C. We Friday on, go out for dinner.
- B. We go out, for dinner on Friday.
- A. On Friday dinner, we go out.

3. What is the best way to move part of the predicate in this sentence?

- D. The painter will climb down the ladder.
- C. The painter is climbing down the ladder.
- B. The painter climbs down the ladder.
- A. The painter climbed down the ladder.

2. Which sentence is in the past tense?

- D. The sheep was eating hay.
- C. The sheep is eating hay.
- B. The sheep will eat hay.
- A. The sheep ate hay.

1. Which sentence is in the present tense?

5. Which sentence has a subject that tells more?

- A. My older sister read me a story.
- B. My sister read me a story about bears.
- C. My sister read to me.
- D. My sister read me a long story about bears.

6. What is the verb in this sentence?

- A. the smart pig
- B. will open
- C. the barn door
- D. slowly

7. Write this sentence the correct way.

---

---

8. Here's what's happening:

Write three sentences that tell what Rachel will do to make a peanut butter and jelly sandwich.

---

---

---

---

---

---

